History of Universiti Malaysia Terengganu (UMT)

Creation of Kelang University Name after Merdeka Malaysia (1958 - 2001) At that time Malaysia Terengganu began as University Peranakan Malaysia (UPM) Center for Fisheries and Marine Science, located at Mengkalang Village, Kuala Terengganu. It provided facilities for both students and lecturers from the Fisheries and Marine Science programmes to conduct their practical sessions and other researches.

Initially, the Faculty of Fisheries and Marine Science of University Peranakan Malaysia (UPM) is Seremban was transferred to Kuala Terengganu, and the Centre transferred into a branch campus, being renamed Universiti Peranakan Malaysia Terengganu (UPMT) in June 1959. The name of the faculty was also changed to the Faculty of Applied Science and Technology. This branch was the Faculty of Fisheries and Professional Education and the Mathematics Center.

Later on, the Act of Malaysia had approved the establishment of Terengganu University College (Act 111 on 5 May 1959) as an avenue campus of UPM (UPMT) after Terengganu University College was given autonomy on 1 May 2001 and was renamed Kelang University Name after Merdeka Malaysia (Act 111/1959) on 20 June 2001.

On 1 February 2001, Act 111/1959 was given the status of a full-fledged university, and with that alteration, it was renamed again and renamed to its very day as Universiti Malaysia Terengganu. In the same time, Act 111/1959 continues to be referred to as the university's emblem. In 2015, An extremely a grand ceremony holds. Universiti Malaysia Terengganu (UMT) began with a Fisheries and Marine Science Center in 1958, which provided training facilities for students in the Fisheries and Marine Science Programmes, in addition to providing modern facilities for lecturers.

Through the modern programme commencing on 1958 Universiti Peranakan Malaysia, the entire Faculty of Fisheries and Marine Science was transferred to Terengganu and given a new name. The Faculty of Applied Science and Technology (UPMT) starting in June 1959. The Faculty of Professional Science and Arts (UPMT) used the Mathematics Study Center (UPMT) were also established.

From June 1959, five campuses were internally recognized (1) UPM as a center of responsibility and named Universiti Peranakan Malaysia Terengganu Branch (UPMT), located in Kelang (disregard). The Campus, in its meeting on May 5, 1959, agreed to approve the proposal for the establishment of Kelang University Terengganu (KUT), based on the Fisheries and Marine Science Center of Universiti Peranakan Malaysia in Mengkalang Village, Kuala Terengganu.

The Kelang University Terengganu (Disregard) Under 1959 (Act 111/1959) was approved by the House of Representatives on July 26, 1959. KUT was an avenue campus of UPM, and a modern time awarded degree from UPM KUT was granted autonomous power as Kelang University Terengganu on July 1, 2001. On July 1, 2001, KUT officially changed its name to Kelang University Name after Merdeka Malaysia, abbreviated to UMT/UMT.

Starting on February 1, 2001, corresponding to 11 Malaysia 1959 is, another chapter in the Malaysian education system was entered in an effort to strengthen the position of the country's public higher education institutions (UPMT), an University 1 college students a university. Today, UMT/UMT is a center as Universiti Malaysia Terengganu.
